Re: Adrea, LLC v. Amazon.com, Inc., Case No. 10-600-ER (consolidated)

Dear Special Master Bechtle:

Amazon writes to request a short extension of time with respect to briefing on Amazon's Cross-Motion to Limit Validity Contentions (D.I. 389) ("Amazon's Cross-Motion").

Amazon's reply in support of Amazon's Cross-Motion is presently due on October 7. Amazon hereby respectfully requests that the due date for Amazon's reply be extended by five business days, to October 14, 2011. Adrea does not oppose this requested extension.

Amazon makes the foregoing request in the belief that the brief extension requested above will allow for more careful and efficient presentation of the issues for Your Honor's consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

 Y. Ernest Hsin
